SELF-PRODUCED SOLO WORK

Charlie Vero-Martin: Picnic

Edinburgh Fringe 2023

- A character comedy fever dream about trying to bring order to a post-pandemic world
- "The show is absurd and silly, but it is also carefully crafted, with invisible threads tying things together, which you can't see until Charlie pings them all towards the end." One4Review ****

Charlie Vero-Martin: Scrapbook

Edinburgh Fringe 2019

- A comedy show about legacy and family history
- "She is fascinated by history and particularly skilled at linking the past to the present and personal. This is a life-affirming show for troubled times." Dark Chat ****

Charlie V Martin: The 24/7 Club

Edinburgh Fringe 2018

- Solo comedy show about others born on the 24th July and which ones made history
- "This is one of the most compelling shows you can see this year. It is charming, hilarious and beautiful. An absolute must-see." Edinburgh Festivals Magazine ****

Dante’s History of the Banished

Edinburgh Fringe 2017

- Character comedy show about exile throughout history
- "a real Renaissance woman" Broadway Baby ****
